□

Las Cruces, NM – Tomorrow, Friday, April 30th Harry Teague will visit Las Cruces to tour local schools, a health clinic and attend events at NMSU.

□

Congressman Teague will begin his tour of schools at Zia Middle school.□□ At Zia, Congressman Teague will have lunch with teachers, administrators and students and talk about his support for the reauthorization of the Child Nutrition Act.□ This Act is an important piece of legislation aimed at promoting children's health by lowering childhood obesity rates while also working to eliminate childhood hunger for low-income working families.

□

Following his visit to Zia middle, Congressman Teague will tour Las Cruces High School.□ At Las Cruces High, Harry Teague will meet with students and teachers and hear from them ideas for better promoting the educational needs of Las Cruces.

□

After touring the schools, Harry Teague will visit the First Step Health Clinic where he will have coffee with the board of directors and tour the facility.□ First Step is the largest provider of pediatric and women's care in Las Cruces delivering over 2/3 of children born in Dona Ana County.□ Congressman Teague will hear from clinic representatives about the services they provide and the challenges they face in delivering quality healthcare.

After departing First Step Health Clinic, Congressman Teague will host a Harry in Your Hometown event at NMSU College of Business where he will meet with future business leaders and hear their concerns and suggestions for stimulating business growth and the economy.

□

Finally, Harry Teague will attend the 6 Man Club Dinner in support of the NMSU Men's Aggies basketball team. Congressman Teague will mingle with guests at the dinner and congratulate the Aggies on their successful season and hard work in winning the Western Athletic Conference.
